

Family Care Team

Registration is open for the Winter/Spring 2025 Family Care Team Webinar Series!

The Webinar Series is a set of four one-hour webinars designed to support family care team members as they journey towards effective teamwork and seamless collaborative care, however all health care professionals working in NL are welcome and encouraged to attend.

- February 26, 2025, 12-1 pm (NT)- Social Prescribing in Family Care Teams- Learn how social prescribing can be used to address social determinants of health and improve patient well-being in Family Care Teams
- March 26, 2025, 12-1 pm (NT)- Needs-based Planning for Family Care Teams- Learn about needs-based planning in primary care and how it benefits Family Care Teams
- April 30, 2025, 12-1 pm (NT)- Management of Chronic Disease in Family Care Teams- Learn about collaborative care strategies and tools for chronic disease management in Family Care Teams
- May 21, 2025 12-1 pm (NT)- Integrating Concepts of Trauma-informed Care in Family Care Teams- Learn about team-based approaches to trauma-informed care and how they can be applied in Family Care Teams

Who Should Attend:

This series is perfect for health care professionals, including family physicians, nurse practitioners, registered nurses, social workers, pharmacists, other allied health professionals and Family Care Team staff, who are eager to strengthen their collaborative care skills.

Register now: <https://www.med.mun.ca/oped/register/family-care-teams>

